Asia Pacific Artlink's 2nd Voices exhibition is scheduled to hold from May 8th, 2025 to May 12th, 2025. Located at the historically significant Huashan 1914 Creative Park, the event not only echoes the space's integration of craftsmanship, innovation, and exhibition, but also places a special emphasis on presenting "large-scale sculpture" and "installation art" in a splendid manner.

Centering around Diverse Sculpture and Installation Art

The goal of Voices is to emphasize the spirit and ideas of each artist through comprehensive exhibition planning. As the first-ever art fair without boundaries or dividers, it marks the beginning of a new chapter for diverse exhibition models in the future, infusing fresh energy into the art scene in Taiwan. Centering around conceptual sculptures, installations, and interdisciplinary integration; Reaching beyond the boundary of exhibition partition; Embracing unlimited curatorial proposals.

Unprecedented Curatorial Perspective

Built upon academic practices, the fair invites the curator Emerson Wang to bring forth an innovative curatorial perspective. Through the planning of the exhibition's theme and the reintegration based on the concepts of the artworks, guiding visitors into the world of contemporary art. From day to night, from visual experiences to culinary delights and active participation, visitors are encouraged to embrace the powerful impact of the space and the artworks.
